ANNOUNCEMENT

PCLT's Dr. Chavonne Lenoir Perotte to appear on PBS's Caucus: New Jersey

We are pleased to announce that PCLT's Executive Director of New Jersey, Dr. Chavonne Lenoir Perotte, will appear on Caucus: New Jersey, the Caucus Educational Corporation's Emmy Award-winning public affairs series that airs on PBS stations THIRTEEN, WLIW and NJTV-Public Media NJ, as well as on FiOS1 and the Comcast Network.

Hosted by four-time Emmy Award-winning anchor Steve Adubato, Caucus: New Jersey combines in-depth documentary coverage with dynamic studio interviews and discussion. Dr. Perotte will be featured on an episode entitled, Safe Dating: Developing Healthy Relationships from the Start in which she will discuss PCLT's partnership with Hazelden to provide the Safe Dates program to New Jersey schools. Safe Dates is an evidence-based program taught by school faculty to middle and high school students that helps students recognize the difference between caring, supportive relationships and controlling, manipulative, or abusive dating relationships. PCLT is the sole organization licensed by Hazelden to provide Safe Dates training to teachers in the state of New Jersey.

The program will air according to the following schedule:
